VOL. V. NO. 293.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

TENNESSEE DERBY ENTRIES.

No Western Derby is more important or more valuable than that annually decided over the track of the enterprising and liberal New Memphis Jockey Club. The only thing that operates to prevent it being contested year by year by all of the choicest Western three-year-olds is the comparatively early date necessarily set for its decision. Many owners dislike to start a highly thought of three-year-old for a bruising contest so early in the year as April. But in spite of this solitary drawback the Tennessee Derby is always the subject of much interest and the chances of the young horses engaged are widely and critically discussed by admirers of racing. At present seventy-three of the original nominations are still eligible to start, but this number will no doubt be reduced by the final declarations due January 1. The list, as it now stands, is as follows:

A sweepstakes for three-year-olds (foals of 1897). $150 each, $50 forfeit, or $10 if declared on or before May 1, 1899; $25 if declared on or before January 1, 1900. All declarations void unless accompanied by the money. $3,000 added, of which $700 to second, $300 to third and fourth to save stake. Weights: Colts, 122 pounds; geldings, 119 pounds; fillies, 117 pounds. One mile and one-eighth.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Many complaints from English race goers have been made to the stewards of the English Jockey Club on account of the pernicious habits of owners who inflict their colts and fillies with initial or letter names. The London Star gives a few of them. Mr. F. Alexander has named a chestnut yearling by Hidden Treasure—Hop Pole, K. K. K.; Mr. A. Bailey's yearling by Sir Modred—Armourette has been christened U. S. A., and Mr. J. E. McDonald's brown colt by Hayden Edwards—Sultanes, bred in America, is named A. N. B. The British race goer does not care so much about the initials as he does about telegraph tolls. Each letter or initial means an additional penny when he sends his "wire" to his friends at distant points to play a good tip straight from the paddock.

W. C. Fleischmann and Thomas Welch have returned from Lexington, where they attended the Woodard & Shanklin sale of thoroughbreds. Thomas Welch is a close observer and is conceded to be one of the best judges of horses in America. He talked enthusiastically about the horses owned by William C. Whitney, which are quartered at the La Belle Farm. Mr. Welch was loud in his praises of Meddler, which, he says, has developed into one of the handsomest horses he ever set eyes upon. He asserts that Meddler is at least 250 pounds heavier than when offered for sale at Morris Park, and that, as far as conformation and general appearance are concerned, he is perfection in every detail. Welch predicts a great future for Meddler, for he rightly claims that a sire that could produce such good results as Meddler did in the barren regions of the Blue Hills of Massachusetts is certain to make a name for himself in a locality where everything is favorable.—Morning Telegraph.

Of a young horse that may be destined to cut a considerable figure on the race track the New Orleans Picayune of last Saturday said: "Prince of Veronia, a good-looking son of Cayuga—Veronia, carrying the all-scarlet of the Morris Bros., showed his heels to a fair field of maidens in the second race at the Crescent City Jockey Club's course yesterday afternoon. From a time standpoint his performance did not call for much, but the colt won with such ridiculous ease that his race stamped him as a more than useful youngster. This fellow possesses the three necessary qualifications for a race horse—size, breeding and action. He skims along close to the ground and is a picture when in motion. He made a show of his field and won in a gallop, by a length and a half. Boland had him under a pull all the last quarter, and he was almost eased up to a hand gallop at the end."

"Snapper" Garrison, once the country's premier jockey, is devoting himself to training, and has a promising string in his care. It includes the following lot: Bay filly, by Lissak—Erie; bay gelding, by Magian—Fancy; chestnut colt, by Lord Esterling—Brighton Beach; chestnut colt, by Senator M.—Tambourine; bay colt, by Bubbler—Egg Plant, and a neat but undersized black filly by St. George—Ada.

The chestnut colt by Lord Esterling—Brighton Beach looks like the making of a racer, and under the "Snapper's" expert handling should surely show to advantage. The black filly by St. George—Ada is as pretty as a picture and as quick as lightning.

Garrison has received a telegram from jockey Corbley at Washington accepting an offer to ride for him, and next season he will carry the stable's colors in the saddle.—Exchange.

Those who came down from Benning were telling a good story around town, in which Tommy Griffin, the "booster," figured either as hero or victim—he best knows which. It seems Thomas organized a special party of twenty-five persons for the trip from Washington to New Orleans, and gave it his personal attention, seeing that everybody was aboard and comfortably settled. Everything went along swimmingly; they got off to an excellent start, to use a turf expression, and were going very easy, when they arrived at Alexandria, about eight miles from Washington, when Tommy suddenly discovered that his wife and children had been left behind in the shuffle. It was then 11 o'clock at night, and Mr. Griffin had to leave the train and walk back all the way to Washington to hunt up his family.—New Orleans Picayune.

A horse named Multiform, which is now in England, is considered one of the greatest horses that ever raced in New Zealand. Out of nineteen races Multiform won fourteen times.

CALIFORNIA TURF TALK.

Emanuel Morris, the one time crack colored rider, is in California again, and will shortly be seen in the saddle once more. Some four years ago Morris shot and killed a colored stable attaché over an argument in a crap game at Roby, and was sentenced to a long term in the penitentiary. Some time ago he was pardoned and now says he has done with the cup that inebriates.

President Tom Williams gave away $1,000 worth of turkeys at the Oakland track Wednesday morning. Bill Fieldwick of St. Julien fame acted as manager in the distribution, and there was not a family within a mile of the Oakland track that had to go without the Thanksgiving turkey. When the supply ran out Fieldwick drove to Oakland for another wagon load.

For the accommodation of owners stabling at Ingleside and desiring to run at Tanforan Park during the meeting which opened Monday, the Western Turf Association arranged with the railroad company for a train of horse cars to leave Ingleside each morning at 9 o'clock punctually, making the trip in thirty-five minutes, and returning at 5 p.m.

The horses belonging to the estate of Simeon G. Reed are to be sold in the East. When Reed died the horses were shipped to Rancho del Paso. Among the horses to go under the hammer is the imported stallion Dancombe.

Owing to a misunderstanding Zoroaster was not entered in the Burns handicap. This is regretted on all sides, as the son of Rayon d'Or is one of the crack horses of the present season.

Charles Boots will nominate in the California Futurity Oneka Maid, in foal to Vincter, and Installatrix, in foal to Satsuma.

Wilson, who rode his first winner in California yesterday, is the boy who rode in the east for James McCormick.

John Robbins, known on every western track, has returned from Chicago with Mission, Ramlet and Dog Town.

Peter Weber has Collins, Bliss Rucker, Abano, Ballister and Gibbertiffibst in training at Los Angeles.

Bandoran has recovered from his lameness.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Reports from Hot Springs show that Steve L'Hommedieu, the plunger of the year, is picking winners with the same marvelous success that marked his doing while he was on the scene of action. The backer of one of the pool-rooms writes to a friend that his contribution to the plunger's pile is $10,000, and he says that the other angels have a similar tale to tell. He adds that unless there is a turn in the tide in the near future some of the establishments will be looking for new bank rolls or close their doors.—St. Louis Republic.

Tom Ryan has changed his mind in regard to the winter campaign in New Orleans, and will ship his own horses, as well as those he trains for James Whitten and others, to his farm in Illinois. He has been offered a big price for St. Simonian, but has declined it.

Thompson Bros., owners of Sidney Lucas, have purchased of L. V. Ball the black colt Grandeur, 2, by Onondaga—Elzarra. Terms private.

The three-year-old gelding Hiles, a good performer last summer on the Chicago tracks, was recently sold for $1,600 to "Doc" Kinder of St. Louis.

W. J. Roche purchased Banneville for $3,000 yesterday before he started for the fourth race at New Orleans and secured a useful racehorse well worth the money paid.

made a dead heat twice and was second three times. He is now in England, and the Antipodeans expect great things of him. His arrival in England swells the list of Australian and New Zealand horses racing there to upward of fifty, so that the pleasing spectacle of Australian horses ridden by American jockeys winning English races is gratifying to sportsmen all over the world.

What would a jockey of the present day say to such a costume as this: A black velvet cap with a long French peak, and a bow of black ribbon behind; long hair falling to his shoulders; a white cambric neckcloth of ample folds tied at the back; a long body coat with flaps, wide skirts, three buttons at the sides, where it opened as well as in front and behind; knee breeches strapped
just below the knee; white cotton stockings, and black leather Oxford shoes with long tongues and silver buckles. Yet such was the dress worn by the winners of the first Derbys.
The inconvenience of riding a close finish over Epsom Downs, or the Heath at Newmarket, or Ascot, with a high wind blowing, in these long tails, naturally led to a compromise. Necessity is the mother of invention, and some early jockey—there was no chronicle to show who he was—hit upon a happy idea, and tucked his skirts inside his breeches. The next step towards the custom of the modern jockey was to curtail these appendages, and after that the transition was easy to the racing rig with which we are now familiar.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted.
The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1899 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

NOVEMBER AND OTHER FORM BOOKS

November books of Form Charts in paper and leather covers are on sale. They contain all the Form Charts of all tracks from November 1 to November 30, inclusive. Price, paper cover,

Winner—Ch. c, by Midlothian—Loleta.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second easily. Dunblane was best and well handled throughout. Decoy ran a good race and had no excuses except perhaps too much weight. Tarhill will be better before long. Silver Tail quit after running well for a half. Wallenstein was practically left. Hindoo Princess ran a fair race.
Scratched—14859 Glissando, 103; 15948 T. Lady, 102; 15972 Ailenna, 100; 15948 Tizena, 100; 15899 El Arte, 98; 15898 Jolly Briton, 98; 15913 Illinoette, 93.

Winner—Ch. f, by Colonel Clark—Gratidue.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Good Hope, in good form, ran well at all stages and was going away at the end. Saintly was hardly ready and his race will do him good. Sir Urian closed resolutely and was gaining at the finish. White Fern showed a burst of speed. Cymamo quit early.
Scratched—15801 Menanilla, 109; 15937 St. Isidore, 104; 15743 Croker, 104.
Overweights—Sir Urian, 4 pounds; Good Hope, 3.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Sunmaid.
Post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second easily. Espionage took things easy for nearly a half mile. The slow pace suited her and she could have won farther off. Casdale weakened in the last furlong. Stromo ran a good race. Rio Chico lost ground at the start and ran a bad race.
Scratched—14810 Glengaber, 102.

Time, 25, 49, 1:02, 1:15, 1:28.
Winner—B. f, by Maxim—Napa.
Post 1 minute. Start poor. Won easily; next two driving. Napamax ran a grand race, being all but left at the post. Thorpe did not hurry her in trying to get up too quickly and rode a fine race. True Blue is in fine form but apparently only a sprinter. San Venado had a stormy journey. Martin was too tight to do him justice. Daisy F.'s race was fair considering that she is high in class. Ventrone stopped after showing speed and is probably overestimated. Olintus was practically left.
Scratched—15957 Jingle Jingle, 99.
Overweights—Ventoro, 2 pounds.
Corrected weights—True Blue, 104.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:02, 1:08.
Winner—B. h, by Fitzjames—Olive.
Post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Sweet William, under a strong ride, barely managed to last long enough to win. Racivan was best of those that got away well and finished fast and strongly. February weakened a little at the end and also Skirmish, who showed considerable speed. Meddler wheeled and refused to break. El Salado did the same. Carter H. Harrison Jr. was short.
Scratched—15945 Silver Maid, 109.

Winner—B. m, by Eagle Piums—Froila.
Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second easily. May W. had speed in reserve and was going away at the finish. Timemaker ran to his best mark. Flamora is not up to a hard race but ran well. King Carnival and Spike acted badly at the post and their little riders could not manage them.
Scratched—(15997) Mocorito, 109.

Winner—B. c, by Terra Cotta—Leonora.
Off at the first break. Start good. Won easily; second cleverly. Russell R. pulled out of a tight place in the last sixteenth and won with plenty in reserve. The saddle slipped on Statira. But for that she would have given the winner a stout argument. The weight stepped Lomond. Satan was knocked out of it at the start. Vain Glory was short.

The produce of mares or stallions which have not produced a winner prior to January 1, 1900, allowed 3 lbs.; of both (mares and stallions), 5 lbs.; not necessary to claim the said allowance at the time of entry. Maidens allowed 10 pounds. Mares may be entered by persons, not their owners, the owner having the prior right. If a mare in this stake drops her foal before the first of January, or if she has a dead, or more than one foal, or is barren, the entry of such mare is void, and the subscription will be returned. By filing at any time with the California Jockey Club an accepted transfer of the produce, with its engagements in this stake accompanied with receipts for all former payments, the original subscriber will be released from any liability as to the engagements of the produce. Should a subscriber or transferee die before the race, the entry shall not be void provided it be assumed by the then owner of the horse, notice in writing to that effect being given within three months after such demise.
